Speaking test completo

Hoja 01 · Part 2: implicarse en la comunidad · Part 3: aprender · dificultad 1 de 6

Unos 19 minutos con el MP3 SPK_Practica_01.mp3 · sin consultar la teoría

Cómo hacer el test

1. Ten delante solo el material del candidato (págs. 2 y 3). Las preguntas de la Part 1, las instrucciones de la Part 2 y las de la discusión solo se oyen.
2. Pon a grabar el móvil y reproduce el MP3 de principio a fin, sin pausar. Los silencios están cronometrados; el Thank you del interlocutor marca el final de cada respuesta.
3. Part 2: empiezas tú cada fase. El compañero interviene en momentos fijos y no te escucha (§1.4): habla unos 20 segundos por turno y reacciona a lo que dice cuando termine.
4. Part 3: respondes las dos tarjetas y las dos preguntas de seguimiento, y luego las seis de la discusión.
5. Al día siguiente, corrige con la hoja de autocorrección y solo después mira las soluciones (§8.1).

Part 3 · Tarjetas

TARJETA A

What makes some things easier to learn than others?

- motivation
- feedback
- age

TARJETA B

How important is it for people to go on learning throughout their lives?

- work
- health
- curiosity

En el examen cada candidato recibe solo su tarjeta. Aquí haces las dos, una detrás de otra.

Transcripción completa. Los silencios llevan entre corchetes lo que te tocaba hacer en ellos; las intervenciones del compañero van numeradas como en la tabla de la Part 2.

Minuto	Quién	Texto
0:08	Interlocutor	Good morning. My name is Sarah Hall, and this is my colleague, David Price. And your name is?
0:16		[silencio · 4 s · tu nombre]
0:20	Interlocutor	Thank you. First of all, we'd like to know something about you. Where do you live?
0:27		[silencio · 15 s · tu respuesta]
0:42	Interlocutor	And are you working or studying at the moment?
0:45		[silencio · 15 s · tu respuesta]
1:00	Interlocutor	How do you usually spend your weekends?
1:03		[silencio · 30 s · tu respuesta]
1:33	Interlocutor	Is there anything you would like to learn to do in the next few years?
1:38		[silencio · 30 s · tu respuesta]
2:08	Interlocutor	How important is it for you to live near your family?
2:12		[silencio · 30 s · tu respuesta]
2:42	Interlocutor	Thank you.
2:42	Interlocutor	Now, in this part of the test, you're going to do something together. Here are some pictures of people taking part in activities in their local community.
2:54	Interlocutor	First, I'd like you to look at pictures A and C and talk together about what the people might be getting out of these activities. You have about a minute for this, so don't worry if I interrupt you.
3:08		[silencio · 25 s · empiezas tú]
3:33	Compañero 1	For me, the girl planting the tree looks genuinely proud of herself. I suspect it's less about the environment than the feeling of having made something that will outlast her. The repair café's different, though. I'd say most of those people are there for the company.
3:52		[silencio · 17 s · tu turno]
4:08	Interlocutor	Thank you. Now look at all the pictures. I'd like you to imagine that a town council is producing a leaflet to encourage residents to take a more active part in their local community. These pictures will be used in the leaflet.
4:26	Interlocutor	Talk together about what each of these activities might offer the people who take part. Then decide which picture would work best on the cover of the leaflet. You have about three minutes to talk about this.
4:42		[silencio · 25 s · empiezas tú]
5:07	Compañero 2	I think the food bank picture is the obvious one for the cover. It shows people helping those who really need it, and surely that's what community is all about.
5:19		[silencio · 29 s · tu turno]

Minuto	Quién	Texto
5:48	Compañero 3	Honestly, if everyone spent one Saturday a month on a beach like that, we'd solve half the world's problems within a year. That's the picture that could change everything!
5:59		[silencio · 29 s · tu turno]
6:28	Compañero 4	So, if I've understood you, you're saying volunteering is really just a hobby for people with too much time on their hands?
6:36		[silencio · 29 s · tu turno]
7:05	Compañero 5	Right, we need to decide. Shall we just go with the girl and the tree? It's cheerful, and everyone likes trees.
7:13		[silencio · 29 s · tu turno: cerrad la decisión]
7:42	Interlocutor	Thank you. Can I have the booklet, please?
7:46	Interlocutor	Now, in this part of the test, you're each going to talk on your own for about two minutes. You need to listen while your partner is speaking, because you'll be asked to comment afterwards.
8:00	Interlocutor	So, I'm going to give you a card with a question written on it, and I'd like you to tell us what you think. There are also some ideas on the card for you to use if you like. All right? Here is your card. It's card A. Remember, you have about two minutes to talk before we join in.
8:22		[silencio · 10 s · preparas]
8:32	Interlocutor	Would you like to begin now?
8:34		[silencio · 120 s · long turn A]
10:34	Interlocutor	Thank you.
10:34	Interlocutor	Is it better to learn something on your own or with a teacher?
10:38		[silencio · 45 s · pregunta de seguimiento]
11:23	Interlocutor	Thank you.
11:24	Interlocutor	Now, it's your turn to be given a question. Here is your card. It's card B. Remember, you have about two minutes to tell us what you think, and there are some ideas on the card for you to use if you like. All right?
11:41		[silencio · 10 s · preparas]
11:51	Interlocutor	Would you like to begin now?
11:53		[silencio · 120 s · long turn B]
13:53	Interlocutor	Thank you.
13:54	Interlocutor	Do you think older people are given enough opportunities to learn new things?
13:59		[silencio · 45 s · pregunta de seguimiento]
14:44	Interlocutor	Thank you.
14:45	Interlocutor	Now, to finish the test, we're going to talk about learning in general.
14:50	Interlocutor	Do you think schools today prepare young people well for adult life?
14:55		[silencio · 40 s · tu respuesta]
15:35	Interlocutor	Some people say we learn more from our failures than from our successes. How far do you agree?
15:43		[silencio · 40 s · tu respuesta]
16:23	Interlocutor	Can you really learn something properly from a screen?
16:26		[silencio · 40 s · tu respuesta]
17:06	Interlocutor	How has the internet changed what people need to know?

18:35	Interlocutor	Is there anything that can't be taught?
18:38		[silencio · 40 s · tu respuesta]
19:18	Interlocutor	Thank you. That is the end of the test.

Part 1 · Respuestas posibles

Respuesta, razón o caso y matiz, en 20–30 segundos (§2).

Pregunta	Una respuesta posible
How do you usually spend your weekends?	It depends a lot on the time of year, to be honest. During term I tend to spend Saturday catching up on work, but I always keep Sunday free — usually for a long walk or lunch with friends. I suppose I've learnt that if I don't protect one day, the whole week starts to blur.
Is there anything you would like to learn to do in the next few years?	I'd love to learn to sail properly. I've been out on boats a few times, but always as a passenger, and there's something appealing about a skill where the weather has the final say. Whether I'll actually find the time is another matter.
How important is it for you to live near your family?	More important than I used to think. When I was younger I couldn't wait to move away, but living on my own made me realise how much I rely on being able to drop in on my parents without planning it weeks in advance.

Part 2 · Fase 1

Pregunta: What the people might be getting out of these activities (fotos A y C). Hay que especular, no describir (§5.2).

Foto	Qué se ve	Qué se puede especular
A	Un repair café: vecinos de varias edades arreglando aparatos en una mesa común.	Que van tanto por la compañía como por el aparato; que alguno es jubilado y comparte un oficio; que les une no tirar cosas.
C	Una chica sonríe junto al árbol que acaba de plantar; al fondo, más voluntarios.	Que está orgullosa de algo que la sobrevivirá; que quizá vino con su grupo y no por iniciativa propia; que lo importante es el resultado visible.

Cómo puede sonar: What strikes me about the girl is how proud she looks — I'd hazard a guess it's the first tree she's ever planted. · I get the impression the people in the repair café are there as much for the company as for the toasters.

Part 2 · Fase 2

Contexto: I'd like you to imagine that a town council is producing a leaflet to encourage residents to take a more active part in their local community. These pictures will be used in the leaflet. Tarea: Talk together about what each of these activities might offer the people who take part. Then decide which picture would work best on the cover of the leaflet. Empieza fijando el criterio (§5.3).

Foto	Qué ofrece o qué dice	Para la decisión
A	Una habilidad práctica, ahorro y menos residuos, pero sobre todo conversación: es una excusa para encontrarse.	A favor: gente corriente, sociable y algo inesperado. En contra: quizá haya que explicar qué es un repair café.
B	Sentido de utilidad inmediata: ayudar a quien lo necesita.	A favor: el valor social es evidente. En contra: puede sonar a obligación seria, y una portada triste no anima a nadie.
C	Dejar algo que dura, estar al aire libre, un resultado que se ve.	A favor: alegre, sencilla, se entiende sin texto. En contra: es la imagen más previsible.
D	Trabajo en equipo y un antes y un después muy visible.	A favor: muestra gente trabajando junta. En contra: no todos los pueblos tienen playa y el uniforme parece de empresa.

Una decisión posible: La A, si el criterio es que el lector piense «yo podría hacer eso» y vea que implicarse es sociable; la C, si se prefiere una portada que se entienda de un vistazo. Una salida negociada: una en la portada y la otra dentro.

Lenguaje para esta tarea: It depends what the leaflet is trying to achieve. · This one would make people think, 'I could do that'. · B and D both show …, whereas … · If we had to settle on one, …

Las intervenciones del compañero

Cada intervención está pensada para provocar una reacción de §6. La reacción propuesta es una entre varias posibles: lo que cuenta es recoger lo que ha dicho antes de añadir lo tuyo (§6.2).

Nº	El compañero dice	Qué provoca	Una reacción posible
1	For me, the girl planting the tree looks genuinely proud of herself. I suspect it's less about the environment than the feeling of having made something that will outlast her. The repair café's different, though. I'd say most of those people are there for the company.	Una idea interesante que conviene recoger con sus palabras y llevar más lejos. §6.2	That's a nice way of putting it — 'something that will outlast her'. And I suppose the repair café is the same idea in a way: fixing a toaster is really an excuse to talk.
2	I think the food bank picture is the obvious one for the cover. It shows people helping those who really need it, and surely that's what community is all about.	Una propuesta razonable: concede antes de objetar. §6.3	I'll grant that it's the most worthy of the four, but a leaflet like this needs to make people think 'I could do that', and a food bank might feel like quite a commitment.
3	Honestly, if everyone spent one Saturday a month on a beach like that, we'd solve half the world's problems within a year. That's the picture that could change everything!	Una exageración entusiasta: modérala sin desanimar. §6.4 · §6.3	Let's not get carried away — it's a council leaflet, not a manifesto. Though I'll give them that: the people on that beach do look as if they're enjoying themselves.

Nº	El compañero dice	Qué provoca	Una reacción posible
4	So, if I've understood you, you're saying volunteering is really just a hobby for people with too much time on their hands?	Una lectura deformada de lo que has dicho: recházala y aclara. §6.3 · §6.4	Nothing of the sort! My point was that people get something out of it themselves — and that's exactly what the leaflet should show.
5	Right, we need to decide. Shall we just go with the girl and the tree? It's cheerful, and everyone likes trees.	Una propuesta de cierre: acepta, negocia o cierra el desacuerdo, pero decidid. §6.6 · §6.3	I'll drink to that — although if we want people to see that it's sociable, the repair café might do the job better. Could we put one on the cover and the other inside?

Part 3 · Tarjeta A

What makes some things easier to learn than others? (motivation · feedback · age)

Decisión	Plan de diez segundos (§3.2)
Operación	What makes: causas, jerarquizadas (§3.1).
Postura	La facilidad depende menos de la materia que de las condiciones en que se aprende.
Línea 1	La rapidez con que sabes si lo haces bien (feedback).
Línea 2	Las ganas: lo que te importa se aprende antes (motivation). Menos evidente y más importante.
Contrapunto	La edad influye, pero la exageramos porque nos sirve de excusa (age).
Cierre	La dificultad no está fijada del todo: se puede crear el feedback y la razón para insistir (idea propia).

LONG TURN MODELO · 281 PALABRAS · UNOS DOS MINUTOS A 145 PALABRAS POR MINUTO

1 Well, the obvious answer is that some things are simply harder than others — quantum physics is harder than making toast. But I don't think that's the interesting part of the question. The way I see it, how easy something is to learn depends less on the thing itself than on the conditions you learn it in.

2 Take feedback, for a start. When you're learning to ride a bike, you know within a second whether you've got it right, because you fall off. Compare that with learning to write well, or to invest sensibly, where you might not find out for months — or years — whether what you did was any good. The faster and clearer the feedback, the quicker we learn, and I'd say that explains a great deal.

3 Then there's motivation, which is probably the more important factor. Children pick up the rules of a game in minutes but struggle with fractions for weeks, and it's not because games are simpler. It's because they want to play. If something matters to you, you put up with the frustration that learning always involves.

4 Admittedly, age plays a part as well. Most adults will never lose their accent in a foreign language, and some physical skills really are easier to acquire when you're young. But I think we tend to exaggerate this, partly because it gives us a convenient excuse. It's much easier to say 'I'm too old for this' than 'I don't really want to'.

5 So, to come back to the question, I'd say difficulty isn't entirely fixed. If you can find a way of getting quick feedback and a reason to care, even quite demanding things become a lot more manageable.

Tramo	Tiempo	Qué hace y con qué recursos
1	0:00–0:23	Descarta la respuesta fácil con humor y adelanta la postura. Well (§4.3), The way I see it (§4.2), depends less on … than on … (§4.6).
2	0:23–0:53	Primera línea: afirma, ilustra con dos casos opuestos y saca la regla (§3.4). Take …, for a start (§4.2), correlativa The faster …, the quicker … (§4.6).
3	0:53–1:15	Segunda línea, jerarquizada (§3.3): probably the more important factor. Escindida It's not because …; it's because … (§4.6) y caso cotidiano.
4	1:15–1:41	Contrapunto con la tercera idea de la tarjeta: concede y limita. Admittedly (§4.3), we tend to exaggerate this.
5	1:41–1:56	Cierre que vuelve a la pregunta con una idea propia: la dificultad se puede modificar. to come back to the question (§4.2).

Pregunta de seguimiento: Is it better to learn something on your own or with a teacher? Depende de la fase: al principio, un profesor da el feedback rápido del que hablaba la tarjeta; más adelante, aprender solo obliga a ser autónomo. Enlaza con el long turn sin repetirlo: That ties in with what I said about feedback … (§3.7)

Part 3 · Tarjeta B

How important is it for people to go on learning throughout their lives? (work · health · curiosity)

Decisión	Plan de diez segundos (§3.2)
Operación	How important: graduar y decir de qué depende (§3.1).
Postura	Muy importante, pero no en el sentido de cursos y títulos.
Línea 1	La razón económica: los trabajos cambian y lo aprendido caduca (work).
Línea 2	La mente: mantenerse ágil y, sobre todo, no volverse rígido (health, curiosity).
Contrapunto	La presión por mejorar sin descanso agota; estar satisfecho no es fracasar.
Cierre	Importa como actitud, no como obligación (idea propia).

LONG TURN MODELO · 277 PALABRAS · UNOS DOS MINUTOS A 145 PALABRAS POR MINUTO

1 I'd say it's very important — though perhaps not in the way the question is usually meant. When people talk about lifelong learning, they tend to mean courses and qualifications, and I think that's only a small part of it. Learning, to my mind, is a much broader habit than that.

2 The most obvious argument is the economic one. Very few people now do the same job for forty years, and even if they do, the job itself changes beyond recognition. Someone who stopped learning at twenty-two would be struggling by thirty-five, simply because the tools and the expectations would have moved on without them. So in that sense, it isn't really optional any more.

3 But I think the more interesting argument has to do with the mind rather than the job. As far as I know, there's quite a lot of evidence that people who keep learning — a language, an instrument, whatever it happens to be — stay mentally sharper for longer. And it's not just a question of memory. Learning something new forces you to be a beginner again, which is uncomfortable, but it also stops you from becoming rigid in your views.

4 That said, I'm a bit wary of turning this into an obligation. There's a certain kind of pressure these days to be constantly improving yourself, and it can be exhausting. Someone who's content with the life they have isn't necessarily failing at anything, and not everyone wants to spend their evenings acquiring new skills.

5 So, all things considered, I'd say it matters enormously — but as an attitude rather than a duty. Curiosity is worth keeping; a constant sense that you're falling behind probably isn't.

Tramo	Tiempo	Qué hace y con qué recursos
1	0:00–0:21	Responde en la primera frase y redefine la pregunta: la postura ya está dentro (§3.2).
2	0:21–0:47	Primera línea, desarrollada con una hipótesis concreta. The most obvious argument is (§4.2), condicional would be struggling … would have moved on (§4.6).
3	0:47–1:20	Segunda línea, de otra naturaleza y jerarquizada. Atenuación As far as I know para un dato que no se puede comprobar (§4.6); it's not just a question of … (§4.2).
4	1:20–1:42	Contrapunto que matiza la propia postura. That said (§4.2), I'm a bit wary of.
5	1:42–1:55	Cierre con una oposición nítida. all things considered (§4.2), as an attitude rather than a duty, elipsis final probably isn't (§4.5).

Pregunta de seguimiento: Do you think older people are given enough opportunities to learn new things? Ofertas hay (universidades de mayores, cursos municipales), pero la tecnología se diseña pensando en los jóvenes y el prejuicio de que «ya no están para eso» pesa más que la falta de cursos. (§3.7)

Part 3 · Discusión: learning

Respuestas de 30–45 segundos: postura, razón y caso, sin convertirlas en otro long turn (§6.7).

Pregunta	Ideas	Cómo puede sonar
Do you think schools today prepare young people well for adult life?	Bien en contenidos, peor en lo práctico (finanzas personales, gestionar el tiempo) y en tolerar el error. §6.7	They're good at teaching facts, but rather less good at teaching people what to do when they don't know the answer.
Some people say we learn more from our failures than from our successes. How far do you agree?	Solo si el fracaso se analiza; si no, solo deja miedo. El éxito también enseña, pero invita menos a pensar. §6.7 · §6.3	Up to a point — failure only teaches you something if you're prepared to look at it honestly.
Can you really learn something properly from a screen?	Conocimientos, sí; destrezas físicas y criterio, peor. Lo que falta es el feedback de otra persona y la presión de estar presente. §4.3	It depends what you mean by 'properly'. You can learn the facts, but judgement is another matter.
How has the internet changed what people need to know?	Menos memorizar datos y más saber evaluar fuentes; paradoja: cuanto más accesible es la información, más hace falta saber para distinguirla. §4.3	If anything, it's made knowledge more important, not less — you need to know enough to spot nonsense.
Why do you think some people stop wanting to learn new things as they get older?	Miedo a hacer el ridículo como principiante, falta de tiempo, una identidad ya cerrada; no es tanto la capacidad como el orgullo. §4.6	I suspect it's less a question of ability than of pride: nobody enjoys being a beginner at fifty.
Is there anything that can't be taught?	Se pueden enseñar técnicas, no el deseo de usarlas: la curiosidad, el gusto o la empatía se contagian más que se enseñan. §4.6	You can teach someone how to do almost anything, but not, I think, to want to do it.
