SOLUCIONES

1 punto por acierto. Después de la clave rápida va la transcripción, con la frase que da cada respuesta en negrita y el número de la pregunta. Para cada hablante se explica la clave de cada tarea y por qué no valen las opciones que roza, con su tipo (§4) y la cita que las descarta. Al final, por qué sobran las tres opciones restantes de cada lista. Los números de sección remiten a LST_Teoria_v1.

Speaker 1 My neighbour had been on at me for months to join her bird-counting group, and I'd always found an excuse. Then one Sunday I was walking the dog along the estuary and came across a group [21] pulling invasive weed out of the reeds. I asked what they were doing, and twenty minutes later I had a pair of gloves on. It's not nearly as tiring as people imagine, honestly. But a word of warning: I said I'd give them the odd Saturday. I now coordinate the whole eastern section [26], and I spend more time answering emails than standing in the reeds.

Speaker 2 After my divorce, I needed something that had nothing to do with the life I'd had before [22] – somewhere nobody knew me as half of a couple. I'd love to say it was about my carbon footprint, given how much I fly, but it wasn't. We're restoring an old hay meadow, and you do see results, which is lovely: this year we found orchids. What I would warn people about is the politics. [27] Some of the regulars are ferocious about which plants count as native. [27] I've seen grown adults fall out over a buttercup.

Speaker 3 I'm a structural engineer, and the trust that looks after the footbridges up on the moors was desperate for someone who could tell whether the old timbers were safe [23]. It seemed a waste not to help. A lot of the younger volunteers are there to build up their CVs – I'm a bit past that. The training was first-rate, I'll give them that. My one warning would be that goodwill isn't the same as competence. [28] I've turned up to projects where nobody had checked we had permission to be on the land, and we were all sent home.

Speaker 4 I'd read the articles about plastic in the oceans, like everyone, but that's not what got us out of the house. My kids were glued to their screens, and I wanted something we could all do outdoors together[24], so we signed up for the monthly beach clean. We've been out in sideways rain, and the children actually love that part. Just be prepared: you don't get to choose your jobs.[29] Last month we spent three hours sorting cigarette ends into buckets, and my youngest has asked never to do it again.

Speaker 5 I'd spent fifteen years flying round the world for work, and one evening I added up the flights and felt slightly sick[25]. Planting trees seemed the least I could do. My firm runs a scheme where you lend your professional skills to a charity, but I didn't want to spend my weekends on spreadsheets too. The digging is hard on the back, but nobody needs warning about that. Don't go into it expecting to see what you've achieved, though.[30] The oaks we put in last winter will take a century to become anything like a wood, and I won't be around to see it.

Explicaciones

Speaker 1 · 21 G · 26 E

Task One · G a chance encounter while out walking
Correcta. Paseando al perro se encontró con el grupo por casualidad: one Sunday I was walking the dog along the estuary and came across a group, y veinte minutos después ya llevaba guantes.

No es D repeated invitations from a neighbour (mencionado y descartado §4.2). La vecina insistía, pero sin éxito: I'd always found an excuse.

Task Two · E Your commitment may grow more than you intended.
Correcta. La advertencia va anunciada (a word of warning): I said I'd give them the odd Saturday. I now coordinate the whole eastern section. Un sábado suelto se ha convertido en coordinar toda una zona.

No es B The work is more physical than it looks. (mencionado y descartado §4.2). Lo niega: It's not nearly as tiring as people imagine, honestly.

Teoría: §8.1 Part 4: la tarea · §4.2 Mencionado y descartado · §2.3 Señales del discurso oral

Speaker 2 · 22 B · 27 G

Task One · B the need for a fresh start after a difficult time
Correcta. After my divorce, I needed something that had nothing to do with the life I'd had before: empezar de cero tras una mala época.

No es A a feeling of guilt about their own way of life (mencionado y descartado §4.2). La huella de carbono aparece para descartarla: I'd love to say it was about my carbon footprint, given how much I fly, but it wasn't.

Task Two · G Some volunteers hold very strong opinions.
Correcta. What I would warn people about is the politics. Y lo concreta: Some of the regulars are ferocious about which plants count as native.

No es H You may never see the results of your work. (mencionado y descartado §4.2). Dice lo contrario: you do see results, which is lovely.

Teoría: §8.1 Part 4: la tarea · §4.2 Mencionado y descartado · §2.3 Señales del discurso oral

Speaker 3 · 23 H · 28 C

Task One · H the opportunity to use their professional expertise
Correcta. Es ingeniero de estructuras, y buscaban justo a someone who could tell whether the old timbers were safe. It seemed a waste not to help.

No es C the wish to gain experience for a future career (voz equivocada §4.4). Es el motivo de otros: A lot of the younger volunteers are there to build up their CVs. Él se excluye: I'm a bit past that.

Task Two · C Not all projects are well organised.
Correcta. My one warning would be that goodwill isn't the same as competence. El ejemplo: proyectos en los que nobody had checked we had permission to be on the land.

No es A The training provided may be inadequate. (mencionado y descartado §4.2). La formación le pareció excelente: The training was first-rate, I'll give them that.

Teoría: §8.1 Part 4: la tarea · §4.4 Voz equivocada · §2.3 Señales del discurso oral · §8.3 Trampas propias

Speaker 4 · 24 F · 29 D

Task One · F wanting an activity to share with their children
Correcta. Los niños no se despegaban de las pantallas y I wanted something we could all do outdoors together.

No es E an article they had read (mencionado y descartado §4.2). Los artículos los menciona para descartarlos: but that's not what got us out of the house.

Task Two · D You may be given tasks you find unpleasant.
Correcta. Just be prepared: you don't get to choose your jobs. El ejemplo de las colillas, que su hijo pequeño no quiere repetir, muestra que la tarea puede ser desagradable.

No es F Conditions can be extremely uncomfortable. (no responde §4.3). La lluvia aparece, pero no como advertencia: the children actually love that part.

Teoría: §8.1 Part 4: la tarea · §4.2 Mencionado y descartado · §2.3 Señales del discurso oral · §8.3 Trampas propias

Speaker 5 · 25 A · 30 H

Task One · A a feeling of guilt about their own way of life
Correcta. Sumó sus vuelos y felt slightly sick: es culpa por su propio estilo de vida, y plantar árboles era the least I could do.

No es H the opportunity to use their professional expertise (mencionado y descartado §4.2). Su empresa ofrece voluntariado profesional, pero no lo quiso: I didn't want to spend my weekends on spreadsheets too.

Task Two · H You may never see the results of your work.
Correcta. Don't go into it expecting to see what you've achieved, though. Los robles tardarán un siglo y I won't be around to see it.

No es B The work is more physical than it looks. (mencionado y descartado §4.2). Reconoce el esfuerzo físico, pero dice expresamente que no es su advertencia: nobody needs warning about that.

Teoría: §3.1 Lo que se dice y lo que se da a entender · §8.1 Part 4: la tarea · §4.2 Mencionado y descartado · §2.3 Señales del discurso oral · §8.3 Trampas propias

Opciones que sobran

Task One

C the wish to gain experience for a future career
Speaker 3 lo atribuye a otros, a los voluntarios jóvenes (A lot of the younger volunteers are there to build up their CVs), y se excluye: I'm a bit past that.

D repeated invitations from a neighbour
Speaker 1 menciona a su vecina para decir que siempre ponía excusas: I'd always found an excuse.

E an article they had read
Speaker 4 había leído artículos, but that's not what got us out of the house.

Task Two

A The training provided may be inadequate.
Speaker 3 dice lo contrario: The training was first-rate, I'll give them that.

B The work is more physical than it looks.
Speaker 1 lo niega (It's not nearly as tiring as people imagine) y Speaker 5 lo da por sabido: nobody needs warning about that.

F Conditions can be extremely uncomfortable.
Speaker 4 cuenta que han salido con lluvia, pero como algo que a los niños les encanta: the children actually love that part. Su advertencia es otra.
